Mercy

When We Catholics speak of mercy; what is mercy; we can turn to both the corporal acts of mercy and the spiritual acts of mercy.

Forgiveness falls into the spiritual acts of mercy. Kindness, helping the less fortunate falls into the corporal acts of mercy. Jesus instructs his disciples, instructs us, to live by these spiritual and corporal acts of mercy.

“Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful,” Jesus tells us.

That sounds tidy enough, easy enough. Right? Truth be told, it seems that this can seem like an impossible task at times; especially in today’s world; be merciful as Your Father is? I mean, how’s that even possible? I go home and turn on the TV the past months and see atrocities, war, and so on. It can seem like the world is burning down both literally and figuratively. I’m not seeing much mercy. And I’m not feeling very merciful.

Then I learn of the fires in Hawaii this past week; the devastation is incomprehensible. But then a story comes on about these people in Kihei, Hawaii loading supplies on a boat to bring to West Mahi for the victims staying at one of the shelters.

Another story comes on of a nurse from San Francisco; seeing the destruction jumped on a plane. For the past week she’s been at a shelter taking care of the injured. She said, I just knew I had to help.

There’s the veterinarian who showed up at another shelter treating survivors’ dogs and cats.

And there’s a church who is allowing displaced families to camp on their property and supplying food and other necessities.

A father with his wife and young son who lost everything was asked by a reporter, “What is the one thing you need?” With tears streaming down his face he replied, “We love you; we love you all for your support, we just need love.”

Be merciful. Give and gifts will be given to you.

All these people, and more, loving their neighbor, being merciful just as our father is merciful.

Despite all the terrible surroundings and hurt, pain, even death around them, these people being interviewed seemed...so present, so human, so alive; so hopeful.

And I was reminded to just what the mercy of God is:

It’s unconditional—it’s always there, and it underlines everything.

Mercy already exists in you and me; that’s how God made us; that’s why we are so drawn to it; just as I was drawn to those stories of mercy coming out of Hawaii. At the end of the day, we are made by God to forgive and to give our gifts to those around us who are hurting; its who we truly are. Why? Because then comes hope.

I didn’t see much happiness in those folks helping in Hawaii, but I saw strength, I saw mercy; I saw hope.

Peace be with You.

Deacon David

Dear Beloved Parishioners,

The weekend of August 26 - 27, 2023, holds a special significance for us at St. Rose of Lima Church. During this time, we will have the privilege of hosting the Dominican Sisters, who are embarking on a noble mission to seek both spiritual and financial support for the impoverished communities in Vietnam.

These dedicated Sisters have been tirelessly working to address the pressing needs of the less fortunate, providing vital services such as education, housing, food, safe drinking water, care for orphanages, and even basic assistance for lepers. Through their compassionate efforts, they are bringing hope, healing, and dignity to those who need it most.

It's an honor for us to welcome the Dominican Sisters to our parish through the Mission Cooperation Plan of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. Their presence is a reminder of our larger call as a Church community to reach out and help our brothers and sisters in need.

In light of this, I humbly invite you to consider offering your prayerful support and generous contributions to the mission of the Dominican Sisters. Your participation will make a profound impact on the lives of those they serve and will further God's work of compassion, love, and transformation. Your contributions, no matter the size, carry the power to change lives and bring hope to the most vulnerable.

Thank you for your consideration, and may God's abundant blessings be with you and your loved ones.

Eucharistic Miracle of GUADALUPE

SPAIN, 1420

During the celebration of the Mass, a priest saw numerous drops of Blood fall from the consecrated Host. The miracle contributed to strengthening the belief of the priest and many of the faithful, among whom was also the King of Castile. There are numerous documents that testify to the miracle. The relics of the marvel had been exhibited to the veneration of the faithful during the Eucharistic Congress of Toledo in 1926 and even today are the objects of deep devotion to the whole of the Spanish people.

Relic of the Blood-stained corporal

Church of Nuestra Señora of Guadalupe

Even today, in the sanctuary of Guadalupe, it is possible to admire the precious relics of the Corporal and of the bloodied pall (the pall is the small rigid linen cloth, of square shape, that serves to cover the chalice and the patent), used during the miraculous Mass from the Venerable Don Pedro Cabañuelas, in the region of Toledo. He was always distinguished for his deep devotion to the Holy Eucharist, and he spent many hours in adoration both night and day before the Blessed Sacrament. He had been brutally tempted to doubt about the reality of transubstantiation, but in 1420 all of his doubts had disappeared. As he had been accustomed to do daily, Don Pedro began to celebrate the Holy Mass: at the moment of the consecration he saw a dense cloud to come down from above and settle itself above the altar. He could not see anymore.

Then the priest began to implore the Lord to cancel his doubts. Slowly the cloud began to reduce itself and presented this sight: the Host was lifted above the chalice and abundant drops of Blood began to fall that immediately replenished the chalice and even overflowed pouring onto the corporal and on the pall. At that point, the priest heard a voice that said: "End the Holy Mass, and for the moment reveal to no one what you saw".

The miracle later on was published by the brothers of Don Pedro and the news was spread in all of Spain until it arrived at the King of Castile, Don Juan II and to the Queen, Lady Maria of Aragon, who became so devoted to the miracle, that they asked to be buried near the body of the Venerable Father Pedro Cabañuelas.

St. Rose of Lima Did You Know?

From a young age St. Rose wanted to join a convent but her parents did not give her permission to do so. Because she preferred not to marry, she endured much misunderstanding from her parents and friends. She continued, however, to remain at home and lived a secluded life. To do her share in supporting the family, she did needlework and sold the flowers she cultivated. When she was twenty years of age, she joined the Third Order of St. Dominic and converted a little hut in the backyard into a hermitage, where she often went to pray. The statue of St. Rose of Lima, located in the rose garden, depicts her as she would be in the prayer hut.

As we prepare to begin another CCE year, I would like to share with you from a handout we use during the Baptism Preparation sessions for parents called the ABC's of raising kids Catholic. The key point I hope to make is that the home, also known as the domestic church is the primary place for your child's faith formation. Much of this faith formation is accomplished best through the examples of Mom and Dad. Parents, do you pray confidently, expecting the Lord to answer your prayers for your family. Allow your children to see that Mom and Dad really care for and love one another. Kids will thrive when this happens in the home. Always remember that such love is contagious. With all that is happening in the world, it is easy for your children to get confused. At a very early age, help your children to develop a true sense of discernment in determining what is right and what is wrong.....what is good and what is evil. Forgiveness and a forgiving spirit are contagious. And as a forgiving spirit grows in your home, you, your children and all who enter your home will really begin to experience what real love and peace are. Take the time after each Mass you attend to acquaint yourself and your child with the many signs in the Church and during the Mass that add richness to the faith lived. These are just a few ideas. Next week, we will look at a few more. I hope you find them helpful as you travel the journey of faith with your family. The St. Rose of Lima CCE office stands ready to assist you in any way possible and registration for all religious education programs at St. Rose is ongoing.

Sincerely,
Deacon John

75 Years of Service

The Altar Guild has compiled a 164 page, 75 year history of their beautiful ministry at St. Rose. With all the activities of the Altar Guild, it closely mirrors the history of our parish. Ever wonder who the now famous recording artist was at the 1961 Bazaar? Or who the charter members of the parish were? How many Pastors we've had and who they are? What items have been donated by the Altar Guild for the care of the Altar? You'll find out in the book with color photos and newspaper articles from the beginning, in 1946, through 2021. You can obtain a copy at the Ministry Fair or in the Parish Office for $20. And ladies, ladies of any age, if you're not a member of the Altar Guild, take a look and be part of the next 75 years!

The next meeting is September 11 @ 6:30 pm in the Parish Hall. All are welcome!
