EUCCHARISTIC MIRACLES

The Eucharist and

SAINT CATHERINE OF SIENA

1347-1380

Jesus appeared to St. Catherine of Siena to assure her that a great flame does not diminish, even if it is used to light many candles. Such is the flame of the Holy Eucharist, because it does not weaken while enflaming the loyal faithful who come with their strong or weak faith. The stronger and weaker charity of each of the faithful is symbolic only by the flame's dimension of the candles.

St. Catherine of Siena sees the fire come out of the consecrated Host. Museum, Diocese of Milan

Often St. Catherine saw a Baby instead of a Host in the hand of the priest; at other times St. Catherine saw an ardent furnace that appeared as if the priest penetrated it at the time of Holy Communion. Collection Fresco Located at Museum of Hiéron of Paray-le-Monial

Regarding the Eucharist, Jesus confided the following words to St. Catherine of Siena: "You receive all the divine essence of the sweetest Sacrament in the whiteness in the bread.

Just like the sun cannot be divided in the whiteness of the Holy Host. Let us suppose that the Sacred Host could be divided: even if it would be possible to fragment the Holy Eucharist into thousands of tiny Particles, in each one of the tiny Particles there is the presence of Christ, the whole God and the whole Man. In the same manner that a mirror would shatter into thousands of pieces, the Sacred Host will not shatter or divide the image of God and Man that you see in the Host; the image of God and Man is in each fragmented part. Contrary to fire, the image of the Host does not diminish in faith or divinity. Let us look at the following example: If you had one candle and the whole world would light its candle from that single candle, the light of the candle would not diminish and everybody would have a lighted candle. While it is true that those who participate in the candlelighting may have more or less flame, everyone would receive exactly the amount of fire to light their candle. Until that time that it can be better, this example stands.

"If there were a lot of people bringing candles of all sizes – one person with two candles and one with six candles and one with a candle weighing an ounce and one with a candle weighing a pound or more - then you could see all the lit candles by color. By color, by its light, by its heat, you would judge that the person that has a one-ounce candle has less light than the one with a pound candle. This is how it is for those receiving the Holy Sacrament. Man carries his own candle so that he can receive the sacrament; however, that candle is unlit, but it is ignited when he receives the Eucharist. As a matter of fact, as you are all alike, made and created in my image and likeness and as Christians you are anointed with Holy Baptism, you can, therefore, grow in virtue as much as you like through my divine grace. You are not changing your spiritual life that I bestowed upon you, but you can grow and increase in love of virtue, using your free will with virtue, with charitable affection, while you still have the time, because once time has elapsed, it will no longer be possible."

John 14:27

“Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.”

In this time in the world in which we live, peace is a commodity that seems to be in short supply. Whether it's peace in the world, or the peace we long to feel in our hearts, it certainly seems the odds are stacked against us. As people of faith, it is easy to become disillusioned, even bewildered. The Christian faith is founded on the truth that there is a peace that is not influenced by circumstances, that is not an emotion, but rather is a state of being. Could it possibly be that we are not finding that peace, because we are looking in all the wrong places, trusting in all the wrong philosophies and ideals, trusting in our own abilities to create such peace. If we are looking for peace as an intellectual pursuit, we will never find it.

In this past week we have heard of the atrocities committed in Israel by people who call themselves militants, but who are in fact murderers. We fear the consequences of retaliation for such offenses. We even fear our own safety. In other words, peace is nowhere to be found, or so it seems. Reflect on these words from Paul's letter to the Phillipians 4: 5-6: “Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God which surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.”

This is what true peace is all about. It is not about us, rather it's all about God, His grace, His mercy, His love.

Have you ever come to know someone, who as far as you can see, could not possibly have a heart that is filled with the peace of Jesus Christ? There could be someone sitting next to you at Mass who you might sense, because of their circumstances, has no possibility of a peace filled heart. Yet as you exchange the sign of peace with them in the Mass, the expression on their face, their smile, even their touch betrays what is really in their hearts....peace. Externally things are a mess, but they are saying to you the peace that passes all understanding fills their heart to overflowing.

We live in a society where the statesmen we look up to or should be able to look up to are becoming more and more nothing but politicians. What should be best for us and the country in which we live has become political gamesmanship, one trying to out do or out argue the other. Is true peace possible in such a caustic environment. We worry so much about climate change, perhaps rightfully so, but we don't seem to be preoccupied with bringing about real peace in each other's hearts. It is something we will never be able to do....we think. Listen to some more of Paul's words to the Phillipians 4: 8 “Finally brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is lovely, whatever is praiseworthy, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence or anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” We would all do well to ask God for greater outpouring of His Spirit in our hearts so that we would confidently know that true peace is possible when we allow our hearts to stay focused on all that is good. Where was Paul when he wrote these verses? He was in prison and yet he was at peace.

Sincerely, Deacon John

Update Membership Information

Does our Church database have YOUR family membership record correct? Here is your chance to update YOUR record for our annual Guide Book & Directory (if you haven't already done so). It is time for us to update our database with any changes, additions, or deletions that may have occurred in YOUR family over the past year. Have you changed your phone number? Have you moved? Are you preparing to move soon? Are all of your children still at home and are they all included in your membership record? Do you want your record published? If you have not already informed the Church Office about changes to your record, please let us know now so that the information in the Guide Book and directory is correct. Please email the parish secretary, Diana Saldaña to dsaldana@stroselima.org, with your contact information and the topic "Guide Book Advertising." A representative will be in touch with you to provide more details.

Guide Book & Directory Advertising Opportunity

We are in the process of updating our annual Guide Book & and Directory for the church. This book will contain everything pertinent to our church: the various ministries, organizations, committees, activities, functions, and events plus a complete directory of all members. This book is being provided and directly mailed to each family at no cost to our church, and it is again being subsidized by local businesses that advertise. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book. Please email the parish secretary, Diana Saldaña, to dsaldana@stroselima.org, with your contact information and the topic "Guide Book Advertising." A representative will be in touch with you to provide more details. Recent survey results by Guide Book Publishing show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book & Directory advertiser than a non-advertiser. It "will pay" to advertise in our new Guide Book & Directory.

PARISH LIFE

Notice: Flu Season is upon us. Receiving Holy Communion - Roman Catholics believe that both the body and the blood of Christ are contained in the Holy Eucharist under the form of the consecrated host. But the Church encourages reception of the chalice at Mass as a fuller expression of the Last Supper and Christ’s precious blood poured out for us in sacrifice. If you are feeling sick, please receive Holy Communion in the hand, rather than on the tongue, and refrain from receiving Communion from the chalice. It is not appropriate to dip your host into the chalice, as this is irreverent and can contaminate the chalice. It is appropriate to consume the host immediately upon receiving it. The sign of peace - Please don’t be offended if someone chooses not to shake hands with you during the sign of peace. An appropriate gesture for those who are concerned about spreading illness might be to strive for eye contact rather than physical contact. For more information, please go to:
