EUCCHARISTIC MIRACLES

Sustained For More Than 10 Years Solely By The Eucharist

BLESSED ANNE CATHERINE EMMERICH

GERMANY, 1774-1824

Anne Catherine Emmerich was forced to abandon the monastery in which she lived because it was being appropriated by the government. In that period, her health declined and the mystical experiences increased: she received the stigmata and had numerous visions. One of these allowed the finding of the house of Our Lady in Ephesus. In fact, according to antique traditions, it seems that Mary settled, together with John the Apostle, in this city. The miraculous aspect of the life of Anne Catherine is that for years she fed only on the Eucharist.

Portrait of Clemens Brentano

Portrait of Anne Catherine Emmerich

Drawing by Clemens Brentano

Anne Catherine Emmerich was born in Germany on September 8, 1774 into a family of farmers and began to work very early. Later on, a religious vocation matured and she asked to be admitted in several monasteries, but she was always rejected because she was very poor and had no dowry. Only when she was twenty-eight years old she was accepted in the monastery of Agnetenberg, where she joined the monastic life with fervor, always ready to take the most difficult tasks. One night while she was praying, Jesus appeared and offered her a crown of roses and a crown of thorns. She chose the crown of thorns and Jesus put the crown on her head. Suddenly, around her forehead appeared the first stigmata. Later on, after another apparition of Jesus, the wounds also appeared in the hands, feet and side. In 1811, the monastery of Agnetenberg, was suppressed. Anne Catherine found hospitality, as a housekeeper for a priest; but soon she became ill and was bedridden.

Dr. Wesner, a young doctor, visited her and remained very impressed by the stigmata. During the eleven years that followed, he became her friend and faithful assistant, having also a diary in which he would transcribe her visions. Meanwhile the nun had practically stopped eating; a little bit of water and the Consecrated Host were enough to keep her alive for years. She was very devoted to, and wrote many pages about, the Holy Eucharist: "My desire for the Holy Eucharist was so vehement and irresistible that, at night, I would often leave my cell to enter the Church... Often I would genuflect and prostrate towards the Blessed Sacrament with extended arms, and sometimes I would enter into ecstasy". Anne Catherine always joined her suffering with that of Jesus, and offered it for the redemption of men. The most famous biographer of Anne Catherine was the German writer, Clemens von Brentano, who wrote all her visions. Brentano compiled thousands of pages about the Blessed, many of which must still be published. In one of his most famous passages he wrote: "Anne Catherine stands like a cross at the side of the street, to indicate the right direction to the faithful. That which she says is brief but simple, full of depth, warmth and life. I understood everything. Always happy, affectionate, dignified, marvelous; always ill, agonizing, but at the same time delicate and fresh, chaste, tried, lucid. To be seated at her side meant to occupy the most beautiful place in the world".

PASTORAL LETTER TO THE YOUTH

Dear Awesome Youth of Our Parish,

Have you noticed the intriguing pictures with the faces of four different people and some symbols in front of the ambo? Well, guess what? Those are actually images of the four Evangelists: Saint Matthew, Saint Mark, Saint Luke, and Saint John. And they have got some pretty awesome stories behind them, just like the pictures. So, get ready to dive into the world of the Evangelists, and let's have some fun learning together!

1. Saint Matthew – The Angel: Saint Matthew is often symbolized by an Angel. You might be wondering, “Why an Angel?” Well, think of Angels as messengers from God, delivering really important news. Now, what’s super exciting about Saint Matthew is that his Gospel is like a giant message from God. It’s like God saying, “Hey, world, I have some amazing news for you!” His Gospel starts with a family tree, like a big family history project, showing how Jesus is connected to some really important people in history. So, you can think of Saint Matthew as the “genealogy guru” of the Gospels. He helps us understand that Jesus is part of a long, important story of God’s love for us.

2. Saint Mark – The Lion: Let’s explore Saint Mark’s world! He’s the Evangelist known for the Lion symbol. But why a Lion, you ask? Well, his Gospel starts with the powerful voice of John the Baptist in the wilderness, announcing Jesus with a mighty roar. Think of it like the thrilling beginning of an action movie – a grand opening! Saint Mark’s Gospel is a whirlwind of excitement, like a heart-pounding action film, filled with remarkable stories of what Jesus did during His time on Earth. Saint Mark is the “action hero” among the Evangelists, inviting us on an adventure that shows following Jesus is an exciting journey full of wonder and amazement.

3. Saint Luke – The Ox: Say hello to Saint Luke, who’s represented by the Ox symbol. You might be wondering, “Why an Ox?” Well, here’s the deal: His Gospel begins with a story about a priest named Zechariah who was in the temple. Now, the temple was a place where Oxen were used for sacrifices, and it was a special, holy place. Saint Luke, in his Gospel, shows us how Jesus is like a caring and compassionate doctor. He heals people with love and care, just like how a doctor takes care of their patients. So, you can think of Saint Luke as our “go-to guy” for heartwarming stories about how Jesus brings healing and love into our lives.

4. Saint John – The Eagle: Last but definitely not least, we have Saint John, known for the Eagle symbol. You might be wondering, “Why an Eagle?” Well, think about how an Eagle soars high in the sky, closer to the heavens. Saint John’s Gospel is like that, soaring to great spiritual heights! His Gospel is deep and makes us think about big ideas. Saint John is like the “philosopher” of the Evangelists. His Gospel invites us to explore profound spiritual truths and ponder the deep mysteries of our faith. It’s like taking a journey into the deep and beautiful world of God’s love and wisdom.

Alright, fellow teens, listen up! The Bible isn’t some dusty old book; it’s like a treasure chest loaded with stories, wisdom, and inspiration that’s just waiting for you to unlock. When you delve into the Gospels of Christ, you’re embarking on an epic adventure, tapping into a wellspring of wisdom, and drawing closer to God, all while navigating the journey of life. Think of it as a journey filled with surprises, hope, and strength. Let’s make a pact to begin exploring the Bible, step by step, and discuss it with your friends and youth group. It’s not a solo mission; we’re in this together. So, keep that curiosity burning, stay pumped, and let the Bible boost your faith journey!

Fr. Linh Nguyen

CCE CORNER

Ten Good Reasons to go to Mass #5 "We need to talk to God." One of the many wonderful blessings we receive when we go to Mass is the opportunity to speak to God in a very personal way as we participate in the Liturgy. We speak to God as we begin the Mass with the Sign of the Cross proclaiming publicly that we are a Eucharistic people gathered in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. As we sing our hymns of adoration, praise and thanksgiving we speak to God in a unique and extremely powerful ways. Our participating in the communal responses at Mass is our expression of our unified love of the Eucharist and all it calls us to be. Our prayers during Mass come from the deepest recesses of our hearts because we know the depth of God's love for us in every area of our lives. We listen to God speak to us through His holy Word and thus we are encouraged to respond by sharing with Him our greatest needs.....the Prayers of the Faithful. Each of the "Amens" we speak during the Mass become our way of saying "Your right God...I will do what you ask me to." And what is it he asks us to do?

"Go in peace to love and serve the Lord."

Sincerely,
Deacon John
