Stewardship Reflection

"For my yoke is easy, and my burden light." Matthew 11:30

When we think of being good stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our time, talent, and treasure. However, we must remember that we are not "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion, in gratitude, of what He has already given to us.

the role of shepherds

"Where is your brother?" (Genesis 4:9)

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus,

One of the images used in the Bible is that of the Good Shepherd who goes in search of the lost sheep (Luke 15, John 10:11 ff). When we reflect on this, we realize that we all play the role of shepherds in different ways in our families, workplaces, community, and elsewhere.

Recently, I got the opportunity to visit some of our longtime parishioners who were regular churchgoers and were active in different ministries of the church but are now homebound or living in nursing homes and other facilities. When I visit them with Holy Communion or for the Anointing of the Sick, I can see the joy on their faces. They have great memories of our parish. Some of them were crying when receiving communion after a long time. Some of them express their joy and gratitude when they see someone from the St. Rose community. During the recent ACTS Retreat, one of the faith sharers shared with tears of joy how our community supported his family when they were in great distress.

One consequence of the pandemic is that we tend to be more disconnected from one another. As a result, we don't always have a great idea of where the members of our community are or how they are doing. It is our responsibility as a community to find out which of our people are in need of spiritual care.

A parish is not just a group of people coming together. It is a community and a family. Religion is a relationship with God and others. According to St. Paul, we are different members of the mystical body of Christ (Rom. 12:4-5; 1 Cor. 12:11,13,18,27; Col. 1:18; Eph. 5:30). The most important purposes of the Church are worship, faith formation, evangelization, fellowship, and service.

What can we do?

Form Relationships

Try to get to know other members of our community. One of the easiest ways to do this is by getting involved in some of the different ministries of the church.

Inform the Clergy

If you know of any parishioners that are homebound or isolated and are in need of our spiritual support, please contact the parish office or inform any of the Priests or Deacons so that we can visit them.

Community Outreach

Let us think about visiting our senior members, either individually or as a group, spending time with them, praying with them, thus showing our love and gratitude to them for everything they have done for our community.

God bless you all,

Fr. John Samuel

Eucharistic Miracle of MONTSERRAT

SPAIN, 1657

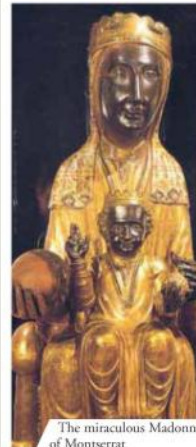

The Eucharistic miracle of Montserrat brings us to reflect on the reality of purgatory and reminds us that every Mass has an infinite value because it makes the unique sacrifice of Christ suffering on Calvary present in our minds. This Eucharistic prodigy is reported by the Benedictine priest R.P. Francio de Paula Crusellas, in his text, New History of the Sanctuary and Monastery of Our Lady of Montserrat.

Interior of the church where the miracle took place

Sanctuary of the Madonna of Montserrat

The miraculous Madonna of Montserrat

In 1657, the Most Reverend Father Don Bernardo de Ontevieros, general of the Benedictine order in Spain, and Abbot Don Millán de Mirando, ended up in the Monastery of Our Lady of Montserrat in order to participate in some conferences. During one of the conferences, a woman and her young daughter showed up and the daughter began to beg the Abbot Millán de Mirando to celebrate three Masses in memory of her deceased father, whole-heartedly convinced that with these Masses the soul of her father would be freed from the pains of purgatory. The good abbot, moved to tears by the girl, began to celebrate the first Mass of suffering the next day and the girl, who was present with her mother, confirmed seeing her father kneeling, surrounded by frightening flames, at the step of the main altar during the consecration. The priest and general dubious, asked the girl to put a tissue close to the flames that surrounded her father in order verify her story. Following their request, the girl put the tissue into the fire, which only she could see, and the tissue began to burn with a lively flame.

During the second Mass the girl confirmed having seen her father dressed in a vibrantly colored suit standing next to the deacon. At the third Mass, the father appeared to his daughter dressed in a snow-white suit. As soon as the Mass ended the girl exclaimed, "There is my father going away and rising into the sky!" The girl then thanked the community of monks on behalf of her father as he had asked her to do. The Most Reverend general of the Benedictine order in Spain, the Bishop of Astorga and numerous citizens of the town were present.

Eucharistic Revival - The Real Presence

How is the Eucharistic bread made? It is rather simple. Grains of wheat are ground into flour, mixed with water, formed, and baked. The ancient leaders of the Church saw in this an analogy to the life of Jesus. The wheat must “give itself” in order to make the bread. Jesus gives himself up to death in order to form us into the Church. He continues to give himself, under the forms of bread and wine, to be our spiritual nourishment. That nourishment allows us to participate in his work of redemption. We work with Jesus to spread the Good News. We are enabled to give ourselves, like grains of wheat, to build up the Body of Christ.

Through the consecrated bread and wine, in which his Body and his Blood are really present, Christ transforms us . . . he involves us in his work of redemption, enabling us . . . to live in accordance with his own logic of self-giving, as grains of wheat united to him and in him.

Avivamiento Eucarístico - La Verdadera Presencia

¿Cómo se hace el pan Eucarístico? Es bastante sencillo. Los granos de trigo se muelen hasta convertirlos en harina, se mezclan con agua, se moldean y se cuecen. Los antiguos dirigentes de la Iglesia vieron en ello una analogía con la vida de Jesús. El trigo debe “entregarse” para hacer el pan. Jesús se entrega a la muerte para formarnos en la Iglesia. Sigue entregándose, bajo las formas del pan y del vino, para ser nuestro alimento espiritual. Ese alimento nos permite participar en su obra de redención. Colaboramos con Jesús en la difusión de la Buena Nueva. Estamos en disposición de darnos a nosotros mismos, como granos de trigo, para construir el Cuerpo de Cristo.

Mediante el pan y el vino consagrados, en los que están realmente presentes su Cuerpo y su Sangre, Cristo nos transforma . . . nos hace partícipes de su obra redentora, permitiéndonos . . . vivir según su propia lógica de entrega, como granos de trigo unidos a él y en él.

CCE reflection

“Come to Me all you who are labored or burdened.”

As I shared with you last week, the quote from Matthew 11:28 is the theme for the 2023-2024 Catechetical year. All who give of their time on behalf of the spiritual formation of our children expend a great deal of their time and energy in a ministry that has the potential to produce lasting results. Those who have stepped forward to answer the call to catechetical ministry know this all too well. This week I ask you to prayerfully consider stepping up to the plate by serving the St. Rose community as a catechist, aid, or support person in our CCE program.

Though there are very specific requirements to serve in this ministry, the primary consideration would be your real love of the Catholic faith: a firm belief in the teachings of the Church, a steadfast belief in the real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, and a genuine desire to share our beautiful faith with the children and their families that we serve. The St. Rose CCE office will journey with you every step of the way, providing the resources and the training you would find helpful in this ministry. The Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston has a wonderful online formation program known as Capernaum (archgh.org/capernaum) which would be a great benefit to you as you serve our parish in this way.

During these days of summer fun, why not take a moment to pray and reflect on the possibility that God really is calling you to this ministry. Contact myself or Joseph Reina for further information or to visit with us about the possibilities.
