growing the kingdom of heaven

Sisters and brothers,

In today's gospel reading, we hear three parables that are a continuation of Matthew's Chapter 13 theme of the gospel message 'The Kingdom of Heaven.' In all three parables, Jesus tells the apostles what the Kingdom of heaven is like, but he does not say what it is.

In the third parable, Jesus suggests that God is like a woman with her hands in the flour, "mixing in three measures of wheat flour," enough for an extravagant loaf that would feed about 150 people! This is Matthew's only parable with a female image of God. It is also the only positive reference to leaven that causes fermentation and which usually symbolizes corruption. Given that, here is the challenge: as Jesus taught, the realm of God is permeated by those whom many "purists" might consider "corrupt"—the poor, the outcast, the marginalized—who will indeed be the active ingredient for the growth of the Kingdom. These are welcomed by Jesus, who was crucified and rose again to leaven and transform the world, and who still mixes with us and all our weaknesses and sinfulness. This parable not only challenges us to consider the feminine aspects of God's nature, but also to reflect on the ministry of women in the growth of the Kingdom.

With that in mind, I approached the leadership team of the Gabriel Project to solicit an update on that ministry. This is the reply:

Thank you, St. Rose parishioners, for your kind generosity in providing contributions—both material and cash—in support of the Gabriel Project. Your generosity has allowed us to assist 93 women and their newborns.

The Gabriel Project is an Archdiocesan initiative, where participating parishes agree to meet with pregnant women in crisis situations who have chosen life for their babies and desperately need items to care for their children. St. Rose parishioners have generously stepped forward many times since the project's inception at St. Rose in January 2021. Thank you!

The Gabriel Project requires ongoing participation from parishioners for donations, and volunteers within the parish who are referred to as "Angels." Our parishioner Angels meet with each mother, match their needs with specific items, and often assist in connecting them with additional community resources, including referring them to our St. Rose Food Pantry. Thank you for your many generous contributions and support for both efforts, helping countless families and children.

The Gabriel Project at St. Rose continues to grow in need and in service. In 2023 alone, we have assisted 28 women so far, and we currently have seven additional women that have requested our assistance who will be helped in the coming days and weeks. Should you wish to make a contribution or donation, or volunteer as an Angel, please contact the parish office. We are grateful for our parishioners' continued generosity.

"For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me." – Matthew 25:35-36

Thank you for helping us provide for those in need, and in supporting life!

These are just a few of the many babies who have recently been provided with clothing and infant-care items through the generosity of St. Rose parishioners.

We as a parish should thank you all—leaders and Angels—for the wonderful work that you do to continue to build up the Kingdom of Heaven! A special thank you to Ana Zamarripa and Diane Summers for their contributions to this article.

May God bless this ministry, all those who work with it, and all those families touched by it.

Deacon Ed Herrera

eucharistic miracles

Eucharistic Miracle of BRUSSELS

BELGIUM, 1370

In the Cathedral of Brussels there are many artistic testimonies to a Eucharistic miracle verified in 1370. Desecrators stole Hosts and struck at them with knives as a way of showing their rebellion. From these particles came a flow of living blood. This miracle was celebrated up until some decades ago. There are many reliquaries of different eras that were used to contain the miraculous Hosts of the miracle of the Blessed Sacrament that have been kept to this day in the museum close to the cathedral in an ancient chapel of the Blessed Sacrament. There are tapestries of the 18th century which represent the miraculous event.

Old prints that portray the Miracle

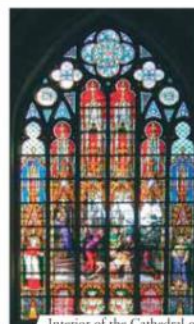

The five stained glass windows that grace the side nave of the cathedral take us through stages of the Eucharistic miracle. They were installed at various times from 1436 to 1870. The Kings of Belgium, Leopold I and Leopold II presented the first windows on the lower level. The others were gifts from various noble families of the country.

The first ten windows represent the story as it came to Brussels in the middle of the 15th century. The ancient document reads : "In 1369 a rich merchant from Enghien who hated the Catholic religion, had some consecrated Hosts stolen. He worked with a young man from Louvain (on windows 1-3). The merchant was assassinated mysteriously a few days later. His widow, surmising it was a punishment from Heaven, got rid of the Hosts by giving them to friends of her husband. These friends were filled with hatred of things Catholic.

On Good Friday 1370, the friends met and began to slash the Hosts with knives – and the Hosts began to bleed! The desecrators were badly frightened and entrusted the Hosts to an important Catholic merchant.

This merchant revealed the whole story to the curate of the Church of Notre Dame. The curate took possession of the Hosts and the desecrators were condemned to death by the Duke of Brabant. The Hosts were taken in procession to the cathedral of St. Gudula". The Eucharistic miracle remains an important part of the traditions of Brussels and is something of a national symbol.

Eucharistic Revival - The Real Presence

He is the Bread sown in the virgin, leavened in the flesh, molded in his Passion, baked in the furnace of the Sepulchre, placed in the churches, and set upon the altars, which daily supplies Heavenly Food to the faithful. —Saint Peter Chrysologus

One of the names given to the Eucharist is the Bread of Life. Saint Peter compares events in Jesus' life to the formation of bread. The wheat must be sown, the flour leavened, and the dough baked so that it may be consumed as food. Jesus' life can be analogized in this way. He was sown, leavened, baked, and then placed on the altar. He is consumed day after day by the faithful. Just as bread helps maintain our physical health, so does the Bread of Life bring spiritual health to all who receive it.

Avivamiento Eucarístico - La Verdadera Presencia

Él es el Pan sembrado en la virgen, levado en la carne, moldeado en su Pasión, cocido en el horno del Sepulcro, colocado en las iglesias y puesto sobre los altares, que diariamente suministra el Alimento Celestial a los fieles. —San Pedro Crisólogo

Uno de los nombres dados a la Eucaristía es el de Pan de Vida. San Pedro compara los acontecimientos de la vida de Jesús con la formación del pan. Hay que sembrar el trigo, leudar la harina y cocer la masa para que se pueda consumir como alimento. La vida de Jesús puede ser analizada de esta manera. Él fue sembrado, levado, horneado y luego colocado en el altar. Él es consumido día tras día por los fieles. Al igual que el pan ayuda a mantener nuestra salud física, el Pan de Vida aporta salud espiritual a todos los que lo reciben.

Spanish Marriage Preparation

St. Rose of Lima will begin offering a Marriage Preparation Program in Spanish soon. If you are an engaged couple seeking to begin the Marriage Preparation process, you will now be able to do this at St. Rose. If you are already in a civil (court) marriage, this program will also assist you in preparing to have your civil marriage blessed by the Catholic Church through a marriage ceremony of convalidation. Though your civil marriage is certainly valid, the convalidation process will make yours a sacramental marriage which will be recorded in the parish records of the Church. More specific details will be coming in a few weeks.

Preparación Matrimonial en Español

Santa Rosa de Lima comenzará pronto a ofrecer Preparación Matrimonial en español. Si usted es una pareja comprometida que busca comenzar el proceso de Preparación Matrimonial, ahora podrá hacerlo en Santa Rosa. Si usted ya está en un matrimonio civil (court), este programa también le ayudará en la preparación para tener su matrimonio civil bendecido por la Iglesia Católica a través de una ceremonia de matrimonio de convalidación. Aunque su matrimonio civil es ciertamente válido, el proceso de convalidación hará del suyo un matrimonio sacramental que será registrado en los archivos parroquiales de la Iglesia. Más detalles específicos vendrán en unas semanas.
