EUCCHARISTIC MIRACLES

The Eucharist and

SAINT CATHERINE OF SIENA

1347-1380

Jesus appeared to St. Catherine of Siena to assure her that a great flame does not diminish, even if it is used to light many candles. Such is the flame of the Holy Eucharist, because it does not weaken while enflaming the loyal faithful who come with their strong or weak faith. The stronger and weaker charity of each of the faithful is symbolic only by the flame's dimension of the candles.

St. Catherine of Siena sees the fire come out of the consecrated Host. Museum, Diocese of Milan

Often St. Catherine saw a Baby instead of a Host in the hand of the priest; at other times St. Catherine saw an ardent furnace that appeared as if the priest penetrated it at the time of Holy Communion. Collection Fresco Located at Museum of Hiéron of Paray-le-Monial

Regarding the Eucharist, Jesus confided the following words to St. Catherine of Siena: "You receive all the divine essence of the sweetest Sacrament in the whiteness in the bread. Just like the sun cannot be divided in the whiteness of the Holy Host. Let us suppose that the Sacred Host could be divided: even if it would be possible to fragment the Holy Eucharist into thousands of tiny Particles, in each one of the tiny Particles there is the presence of Christ, the whole God and the whole Man. In the same manner that a mirror would shatter into thousands of pieces, the Sacred Host will not shatter or divide the image of God and Man that you see in the Host; the image of God and Man is in each fragmented part. Contrary to fire, the image of the Host does not diminish in faith or divinity. Let us look at the following example: If you had one candle and the whole world would light its candle from that single candle, the light of the candle would not diminish and everybody would have a lighted candle. While it is true that those who participate in the candlelighting may have more or less flame, everyone would receive exactly the amount of fire to light their candle. Until that time that it can be better, this example stands.

"If there were a lot of people bringing candles of all sizes – one person with two candles and one with six candles and one with a candle weighing an ounce and one with a candle weighing a pound or more - then you could see all the lit candles by color. By color, by its light, by its heat, you would judge that the person that has a one-ounce candle has less light than the one with a pound candle. This is how it is for those receiving the Holy Sacrament. Man carries his own candle so that he can receive the sacrament; however, that candle is unlit, but it is ignited when he receives the Eucharist. As a matter of fact, as you are all alike, made and created in my image and likeness and as Christians you are anointed with Holy Baptism, you can, therefore, grow in virtue as much as you like through my divine grace. You are not changing your spiritual life that I bestowed upon you, but you can grow and increase in love of virtue, using your free will with virtue, with charitable affection, while you still have the time, because once time has elapsed, it will no longer be possible."

REPENT AND BELIEVE IN THE GOSPEL

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Once again, we are getting ready to enter into the Lenten season to celebrate the passion, death, resurrection and ascension of Our Lord Jesus Christ. Usually for Lent, we try to give up something (like movies, sweets, social media, etc.) or we add something to our prayer & spiritual life (like reading the Bible more or spending more time in Adoration or Mass). The three traditional pillars of Lent are prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

Prayer: - Lent is a time to pray a little more than our daily usual prayers to strengthen our relationship with God.

More Ways to Pray - Stations of the Cross Consider Stations of the Cross on Friday evenings - a popular Lenten devotion. The 14 stations, focus on specific events of Jesus' last day, beginning with His condemnation. The stations are commonly used as a mini pilgrimage as the individual moves from station to station. At each station, the individual recalls and meditates on a specific event from Christ's last day. Specific prayers are recited, then the individual moves to the next station until all 14 are complete.

Fasting and abstinence: - Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence. For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59.

When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal.

The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.

Almsgiving: - When we think of almsgiving we think of donating money. Almsgiving encompasses our time and talent given freely to be Jesus in disguise. Jesus identified himself with our poorest brothers and sisters. The Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy are actions we can perform that extend God's compassion and mercy to those in need. "Faith finds expression in concrete everyday actions meant to help our neighbors in body and spirit," said Pope Francis.

We are not called to do only one, but all three pillars to prepare our hearts for Christ on Easter. The whole Church prepares for the celebration and together, along with those who are preparing to enter the Church at the Easter Vigil, we try to live more faithfully to God's call to be merciful, loving, and compassionate to those around us. Our acts of love through sacrifice and prayer are a tangible witness of God's love to those around us.

Have a Blessed Lent,
God Bless you all,
Fr. John Samuel

33 Days to Morning Glory: A Do-It-Yourself Retreat In Preparation for Marian Consecration

St. Louis de Montfort, St. Maximilian Kolbe, Teresa of Calcutta, and John Paul II. Fr. Michael Gaitley masterfully summarizes their teaching, making it easy to grasp and simple enough to put into practice. More specifically, he weaves their thought into a user-friendly, do-it-yourself retreat that will bless even the busiest of people. So, if you've been thinking about entrusting yourself to Mary for the first time or if you're simply looking to deepen and renew your devotion to her, 33 Days to Morning Glory is the right book to read and the perfect retreat to make.

We will begin preparation on Wednesday, February 21st and end on Monday, March 25th by praying the consecration prayers in the Church after the 8:15a.m. Mass. We will have copies of the consecration prayer on hand if you would like to join us. This book can be found at Sacco's, Veritas, or online at Amazon and other stores.

Many thanks to all of our volunteers who helped make the Confirmation Retreat a success! Please continue to keep our youth in your prayers as they prepare for the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created, and you shall renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray:

O God, who have taught the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit, grant that in the same Spirit we may be truly wise and ever rejoice in his consolation.

Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

That everything we do is for the glory of God.
"Brothers and sisters, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God." - 1 Corinthians 10:31
Do a quick check of your priorities. Where does God rank in that list? If He's not first, you have some work to do. Putting God first in everything helps us from putting other "gods" (like our pride, ego, money and possessions) before God. Before making a decision, ask yourself, "Am I doing this for the glory of God or for the glory of me?"
