JUST A CLOSER WALK WITH THEE...PART 1

Dear Friends in Christ,

Happy Laetare Sunday! Laetare Sunday is a day of celebration within our somewhat solemn period of Lent. My prevailing thought for my reflection today is...God's Mercy is greater than our sins. God's love is greater than our sins.

Psalms 51 defines sin as an offense, evil, guilt, and wrong against God and man. In light of this, we all sin and we all are offenders of God and neighbor. Since we are all guilty, how do we understand how God responds to our sins? Some of us could be...unsure about how God responds to our sins and how we should respond to God in light of our sins.

In scripture, we hear about situations where people have sinned, and through God's mercy, they are made anew. For instance, in the Gospel reading from John, chapter 8, it's the woman caught in adultery that sinned, and through God's mercy, was made anew. In the passage, it was the scribes and the Pharisees who brought the woman to Jesus. They expected Jesus to condemn the woman because of the Mosaic law. Jesus simply asked them...that the one among you, who is without sin, be the first to cast the first stone. The Lord leaves the matter to their own consciences. And...they leave.

Jesus does not condemn the woman. He tells her to, "Go, and from now on do not sin any more." Jesus allows her to correct her course.

The Pharisees wished to condemn, and Jesus wished to forgive and to restore the sinner to health. Jesus gave the woman a pardon and a new start on life. This is forgiveness. Forgiveness is forward looking. Forgiveness is in the future.

Through repentance, God will forgive us. He gives us a chance. That's because God's mercy is greater than our sins. God's love is greater than our sins. It is through God's love and mercy that we receive the grace to repent.

This is what the prodigal son realizes in his most desperate moment when he is in sin, broke, hungry, and far away from his father. The only way home, the only way back to life and the meaning of life is through repentance. And what did the prodigal son say when he saw his father? He said, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I no longer deserve to be called your son." He felt sincere remorse. He repented.

There were several other times in the Gospels where people sinned and felt they should be punished. There was also the woman at the well and the repentant thief on the cross. They knew they were in sin and thought they should be condemned. But what did Jesus do? Did he condemn them? Did he punish them? Or did he love them, show mercy, and forgive them. He showed them love and mercy and forgave them.

Why? Because they showed remorse and repented.

JUST A CLOSER WALK WITH THEE...PART 2

So, since we all sin, how do we respond to our God, in light of our sin? Let me say this a different way. We are all aware that we sin and, at times, we fail. Do our sins lead us to God or do our sins lead us away from God? When we are in sin, do we feel guilty and get overwhelmed and get paralyzed? Do we feel like we are too sinful to receive God's mercy? This kind of guilt oftentimes leads us to directing our attention to ourselves instead of directing our eyes to God. We feel like we are in this rut, and we must rely on ourselves to get out of it. Some of us feel so guilty and so sinful that we even feel too embarrassed to go to confession.

It's when we are having these feelings that we should pray and understand that God loves us in spite of our sins.

The Good News today, brothers and sisters, is that no matter how much we have sinned or no matter how grave our sin, our God still loves us! He wants us to turn toward him. Think of Peter who returned to his Lord with repentance and cried bitterly for his sins after he denied Jesus 3 times. Peter turned to Jesus.

This is opposite of Judas, who was so overcome by his sin that he did not believe in God's mercy and hung himself. Judas turned away from Jesus. Judas did not think that God's mercy was greater than his sin.

When we turn to God, he shows us mercy and compassion. He does so because he loves us. His love for us is greater than any love that we can comprehend.

One way I think about our Father's love is to think of this kind of love as compared to parents having a child. When parents have a child,

They love their child

They care for their child

They feed their child when he or she is hungry

They provide clothing and shelter.

They show mercy to their child when their child makes mistakes. This is how God loves us. When our child grows older, what do we want from our child? We want their love in return and obedience. We would be hurt if our child didn't love us back or if they misbehaved. Now will they be perfect and never misbehave? Of course not, but we still love them anyway.

Our God loves us and wants us to love him. And even if we stray, even if we sin, he still wants us to turn toward him. He gives us a chance today to show our love for him and desire to live in a way pleasing to him. He gives us the grace today to show remorse and repent. He wants us look to the cross, believe, and respond to His love.

Lent is a time to cultivate the ground of our souls. We have a special opportunity to take a closer look at whether we are living as disciples of Christ. During Lent, we can concentrate on those aspects of our lives that are interfering with our relationship with God. What sins, addictions, or distractions keep us from following Jesus? A lot of people could be imprisoned by their sin. Please know that there is a way out, a path forward. Please know that we have a chance to be made anew. Brothers and sisters, I'm happy to know that our God is a loving god. He is a patient God. His mercy is greater than our sins. His love is greater than our sins.

Your Brother-in-Christ,
Deacon Darryl Drenon

Business Manager Corner

St. Rose Family,

As we strive to serve our community better and fulfill our mission, it's crucial for us to evaluate our current technology solutions. Embracing modern technology can help us grow our church, increase engagement, and improve the efficiency of our church management.

By leveraging technology, we can reach more people through online platforms, livestreaming services, and social media channels, allowing us to spread the message of love and faith to a wider audience. Additionally, implementing digital tools for communication and outreach can enhance engagement among our parishioners, fostering a stronger sense of community and connection.

Furthermore, adopting technology solutions for church management can streamline administrative tasks, such as scheduling, financial management, and event planning, freeing up more time and resources for ministry and service.

We are currently evaluating software to help us take advantage of technology. We are also re-evaluating our digital access, (i.e. Internet and network access) for our Parish, School, & ECC. If you have expertise in this area, please prayerfully consider how you can assist us in embracing technology in service of our mission and continue to grow as a vibrant and welcoming community.

Blessings to you all,

Dcn Darryl Drenon

Sanctuary Update

The renovation of our sanctuary with the relocation and refurbishment of the tabernacle and statuary has gone very well and is nearly complete.

There is a strong tradition in the faith to light votive candles. Catholics light votive candles for prayer intentions, especially the intention to say a prayer for another person. The candle is a symbol of that prayer. With the relocation of Blessed Virgin Mary and Sacred Heart in our sanctuary, it is now possible to place votive candles near both statues to express our prayer for intercession.

In order to place these votive candles in this location, a few things are needed:

1. Candle Stand
2. Candle Holders
3. 6-hour Candles

While the Church can cover the one-time expense of candle holders and monthly 6-hour candles, I am asking for our generous parishioners to help with the cost of each stand!

Each stand runs at $985.00, and holds 25 candles. The renovation of our sanctuary has truly been a “parishioner led” project - a blessing from God! Please help us put the finishing touches on this project with these votive candles!

Feel free to contact me if you have question or are interested. Thank you!

Dear Parishioners,

St. Rose of Lima Catholic Community is gearing up for its annual Spring Festival on May 5, 2024, and we invite you to play a part in our celebration! St. Rose has been a part of the Garden Oaks-Oak Forest community for over 75 years and has grown to more than 2,500 families. Our Pastor, Father Linh Nguyen, always strives to make St. Rose a welcoming place full of community and fellowship, and the Spring Festival provides the perfect opportunity for our parishioners, school, and the neighboring community to come together to enjoy great music, great food, and great family entertainment. This year, we're excited to announce the return of live music from a community favorite: The Telstars!

We are currently seeking assistance from the community to help support our efforts. This is the only major fundraiser for our parish, and the success of the event relies heavily on the generous donations that we receive from our donors.
