PEACE BE WITH YOU

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

I hope that you all had a blessed Easter.

Of all the ways Jesus could have greeted the apostles on Easter Sunday and after he chose four simple words: “Peace be with you” (John 20:19).

The apostles were not in the most peaceful state when Easter Sunday dawned. Not only had they seen Jesus’ arrest and crucifixion, but they also experienced their own weakness and lack of faith. Rather than hold on to his promise that he would rise again, they gave in to fear and doubt. Scattering at Jesus’ arrest, they hung back during his trial and crucifixion. Then they went into hiding, worried that the authorities would come after them. By all accounts, they had failed Jesus.

But when Jesus appeared, he didn’t bring up the painful, embarrassing events of the past few days. He didn’t even mention them! Instead, he just wished them peace. He didn’t want a relationship marked by vengeance, retribution, or anger. All he wanted was for us to be at peace with him.

Two Kinds of Peace. What do the words “Peace be with you” say to us? They say that no matter how many times we sin, no matter how grievous our offenses are, God stands ready to forgive us and release us from guilt. He does this so that we can experience the peace that comes from being reconciled with him. As long as we stay with him, his peace will stay with us.

Now, the peace that comes from Jesus is not the same as the peace of this world (John 14:27). The world’s peace depends on favorable circumstances: our getting our way, things going as expected, with maybe a few manageable problems. That sounds nice, but as soon as things go awry, this type of peace tends to dissipate, leaving us anxious and fretful.

By contrast, the peace that Jesus brings helps us face troubling circumstances without becoming swallowed up by anxiety or anger or fear. It brings a quiet confidence to our hearts that guides us as we face challenging decisions. It’s a peace that depends not on the events of our day but on the boundless love of the Lord: “I belong to Christ, and I know that he will never abandon me!”

Jesus’ gift of peace is meant to spill over into our relationships with each other. Immediately after telling the disciples, “Peace be with you,” Jesus said, “As the Father has sent me, so I send you” (John 20:21). Jesus is sending us out, asking us to treat each other with the same mercy and love that he has shown us.

(This reflection is taken from The WORD Among Us.)

Sincerely,
Fr. John Samuel

St. Rose Family,

There has been an increase in fraudulent activities targeting members and staff of our beloved church community. These attacks, including phishing and spear phishing attempts, aim to exploit our trust and goodwill for malicious purposes. (Phishing is a cybercrime where individuals are contacted by email, telephone, social media, or text message by someone posing as a legitimate institution or person. Spear Phishing is a highly targeted attack focused on specific individuals or organizations.)

We urge you to remain vigilant and cautious when communicating online or over the phone. Be wary of unexpected emails or messages requesting personal or financial information, even if they appear to be from familiar sources. Remember, legitimate organizations, including our church, will never ask for sensitive information in such a manner.

To safeguard against these threats, we recommend the following precautions:

1. Verify Requests: Before responding to any request for information or funds, verify the authenticity of the sender through alternate means, such as contacting them directly via phone or in person.
2. Exercise Caution: Avoid clicking on links or downloading attachments from suspicious emails or messages, even if they seem urgent or legitimate. These could be attempts to install malware or steal your information.
3. Educate Others: Spread awareness about these fraudulent activities within our community. Encourage fellow parishioners and staff to remain vigilant and report any suspicious incidents immediately.
4. Strengthen Security Measures: Ensure that your devices, including computers and smartphones, are equipped with up-to-date security software to help prevent unauthorized access and protect against cyber threats.
5. Report Suspicious Activity: If you believe you have been targeted by a fraudulent scheme or have encountered suspicious activity, please report it to the appropriate authorities and inform our parish office immediately.

As a community united in faith, let us stand together against these attacks and remain steadfast in our commitment to safeguarding the well-being of all members. Through vigilance, awareness, and solidarity, we can overcome these challenges and continue to uphold the values that define us. May God grant us wisdom and strength to keep our St. Rose Family safe.

Yours in Christ,
Dcn Darryl

Stewardship Reflection

3rd Sunday of Easter: April 14

That we have the courage to do the work God has sent us to do, knowing that this is the true path to peace and joy.

“Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, ‘Peace be with you.’ But they were startled and frightened...” - Luke 24:36-37

Throughout the day we have many opportunities to “see the face of Jesus” in others and to “be the face of Jesus” to others. Do we take that opportunity to provide “peace” to those we encounter or are we afraid of what others will think of us and do nothing? Pray for the strength and courage to live a “God-centered” life and not a “self-centered” life
