TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

EUCCHARISTIC MIRACLES

Eucharistic Miracle of SALZANO

ITALY, 1517

An extraordinary event occurred in Salzano in 1517. A priest was called with urgent haste to bring the Viaticum to an invalid on the brink of death. The season and the time of day were not appropriate to make a procession, and so the priest had to be content with only one altar boy. Upon arrival at the meadows surrounding the Muson River, several donkeys that were grazing faced themselves in the direction of the pious convoy and, after approaching the priest, they bowed on their knees and then followed the Most Holy Sacrament all the way to the home of the infirm, renewing the genuflection; and then, always with the priest, they walked back to return to the pasture.

Church dedicated to Saint Bartholomew, where the fresco of the miracle is preserved.

Museum of St. Pius X in Salzano, where relics, documents, mementos and precious objects are preserved, among which are the very beautiful chaubles and stoles donated by the same Pope.

Fresco that depicts the miracle, painted by Gian Maria Lepucky, Church of St. Bartholomew.

Win 1536, paused in Venice and in the nearby cities, while waiting for their departure for the Holy Land, they passed several days by the Episcopal Castle of Stigliano, and in this way they had the opportunity to make the acquaintance of and personally evaluate the Phenomenon that was described in a writing by the Jesuit Servant of God, Simone Rodriguez. Here it is narrated about how a certain "Priest by the name of Lorenzo was called with urgency to administer the Holy Viaticum on the western confines of the parish, between Zeminiana and Briana, to a mori-bund ill person. The season and the hour were not suited for a procession, so the priest had to be satisfied with only one altar boy. Arriving at the meadows surrounding the Muson River, commonly called Cime, several donkeys that were grazing faced themselves in the direction of the pious convoy and, after approaching the priest, they bowed on their knees and then followed the Most Holy Sacrament all the way to the home of the infirm, renewing the genuflection; they returned, stopping in the pasture. ... This news is repeated by the elders to the children, and from the priests in the religion classes to the parishioners." Of the Miracle even the Bollandists speak, L.M. Gerola in "The Book for All," P. Beccaro in "Close to Jesus," and P. Sanna Solaro, S.I. in a publication about Eucharistic events that occurred in Italy.

The wondrous marvel was also re-ferred to the Eucharistic Congress of Milan and it was also desired to illustrate it in the one of Venice, according to the correspondence of 1897, preserved in the parish archive. In the History of the Society of Jesus, by Nicolò Orlandino, printed in Bologna by Bartolomeo Zanetti in 1615, again the episode is recounted. This story was written by the Servant of God Simone Rodriguez, a man equipped with extensive knowledge, who died in the odor of sancti-ty in Lisbon Portugal, on the 15th of July 1579. To this document the Curia attached also a notice that confirms the name of the priest spectator of the Miracle, which served to determine even more the date of the Miracle. Father Lorenzo was indeed Chaplain of the Church of Salzano precisely in the month of August in 1517; and he was summoned to the Curia to testify on questions about the parish, which at that time was held by Don Francesco Artuso, who was the pastor in that place until about 1550. The Miracle was concluded to have occurred in the year 1517, and Father Rodriguez, who surely spoke with Don Artuso, was allowed to examine the verbal proceedings, drafted by the competent authorities of that time.

PASTORAL LETTER FOR OCTOBER

Dear Friends in Christ,

Attending Mass is a sacred part of our spiritual journey, offering us a sense of community and a deep connection to our faith. Within this communal gathering we find the homily delivered by a priest or deacon. But why should we receive homilies with genuine gratitude and appreciation?

Pope Francis, in his apostolic exhortation Evangelii Gaudium, emphasizes that when priests or deacons preach during worship, their primary goal should be to foster a deep connection between God and the congregation. They should discuss how God offers salvation and serve as a reminder of the commitments and promises we have made to Him. The goal is to foster faith and provide a meaningful experience for individuals during the Eucharist. In addition, Pope Francis encourages these homilies to help individuals improve their ability to share their faith with others and to adhere to the teachings of the Church.

Homilies are like a guide to our faith. They help us to understand the Bible better. They make the stories in the Bible easier to understand so that we can see how they relate to our lives. When we listen to homilies, we learn more about our faith and feel closer to God. In our busy lives, it is hard to find time for quiet reflection. Homilies give us a chance to stop, reflect, and pray during Mass. This quiet time helps us connect more with our spiritual side, which makes us feel peaceful and wise.

Sometimes life is hard. When we are going through hard times, homilies can be like a comforting hug. They remind us that God loves us no matter what and that we are not alone when we are going through hard times. After Mass, we often leave feeling stronger and like we can do better. Homilies inspire us to grow as people. They challenge us to be better, to be more like Jesus.

Homilies also help us understand how to live our faith in everyday life. They give us good advice on how to do the right things in a world that can be confusing. This connection makes our faith more meaningful as we try to live it out in what we do every day. When we all gather to hear a homily, we feel like part of a big family. We all hear the same message and can talk about it, which makes our faith family stronger.

Homilies also encourage us to be active when we are at Mass. When we listen to the homily, we pay more attention to everything that happens during the service, which makes it feel more special. Homilies often challenge us to show our faith by being kind and helping others. They remind us that we should help people who need it, whether they are part of our faith family or not. Homilies inspire us to be like Jesus by being kind and caring.

In short, homilies are not just speeches; they are an important part of the Mass. They guide us in our faith, help us think, make our faith family stronger, and inspire us to be better people. We should be grateful for homilies because they make our faith stronger and help us feel closer to God and our family of faith. Let's see homilies as special gifts that make our faith journey better and help us connect with God.

Before I finish, I invite you to think about a few questions:

- What did you remember from last Sunday's homily?
- Did you listen to what Jesus was saying to you through it?
- Did you think about it and how it might challenge or inspire you?
- Did you make any decisions based on what you heard in the homily or readings?
- What decision will you make after reading and reflecting on this message?

May God's grace guide us as we continue our journey of faith.

Your Friend and Pastor,
Fr. Linh Nguyen

CARTA PASTORAL DE OCTUBRE

Queridos Amigos en Cristo,

La costumbre de asistir a Misa es una parte sagrada de nuestra jornada espiritual, que nos da un sentido de comunidad y una profunda conexión con nuestra fe. Dentro de esta reunión comunitaria, vemos que el sacerdote o diácono presenta la homilía, el sermón o reflexiones cuidadosamente. Pero, ¿por qué debemos valorar y apreciar las homilías?

El Papa Francisco, en su guía apostólica, Evangelii Gaudium, recalca que cuando los sacerdotes o diáconos presentan sus homilías durante los servicios religiosos, el objetivo principal debe ser fomentar una conexión profunda entre Dios y la congregación. Deben hablar de cómo Dios nos salva y también para recordarnos de los compromisos y las promesas que le hemos prometido. El objetivo máximo es nutrir la fe y ayudar a crear una experiencia significativa para cada uno de nosotros durante la Eucaristía. Además, el Papa Francisco pide que las homilías nos ayuden a compartir nuestra fe con otros y seguir las enseñanzas de la Iglesia.

Las homilías son como una guía en nuestra fe. Nos ayudan a comprender la Biblia mejor. Hacen que los cuentos en la Biblia sean más fáciles de comprender para que podamos ver cómo se relacionan con nuestras vidas. Cuando escuchamos las homilías, aprendemos más sobre nuestra fe y nos sentimos más cerca a Dios. En nuestras vidas agitadas, no encontramos tiempo para pensar o meditar en silencio. Las homilías nos dan la oportunidad de relajarnos, reflexionar y rezar durante la Misa. Estos momentos de tranquilidad nos ayudan a unirnos más con nuestra espiritualidad para sentir más paz y sabiduría.

Las homilías también nos ayudan a entender cómo vivir nuestra fe en la vida cotidiana. Nos ofrecen buenos consejos para hacer lo correcto en un mundo tan confuso. Esta conexión le da más significado a nuestras vidas porque nos ayuda a incluir lo que aprendimos con lo que vivimos diariamente. Cuando nos reunimos a escuchar una homilía, nos sentimos como parte de una familia grande. Todos escuchamos el mismo mensaje y podemos discutir lo que escuchamos – esto fortalece nuestra familia de fe.

A veces, la vida es difícil. Cuando estamos pasando por momentos difíciles, las homilías son como una caricia que nos da consuelo. Nos recuerdan que Dios nos ama sin importar nada, y que nunca estamos solos cuando pasamos por situaciones difíciles. Después de Misa, salimos sintiéndonos más fuertes y que podemos mejorar nuestra situación. Las homilías nos inspiran a crecer como personas y nos desafían a ser mejor, como Jesús.

Las homilías también nos animan a ser activos cuando estamos en Misa. Cuando escuchamos la homilía, prestamos más atención a todo lo que está sucediendo durante el servicio, lo que lo hace más especial. Las homilías nos desafían a demostrar nuestra fe siendo amables y ayudando a los demás. Nos recuerdan que debemos ayudar a las personas que más lo necesitan, ya sean parte de nuestra familia de fe o no. Las homilías nos inspiran a ser como Jesús – amables y compasivos.

En resumen, las homilías no son discursos; son una parte importante de la Misa. Nos guían en nuestra fe, nos ayudan a reflexionar, fortalecen nuestra familia de fe y nos inspiran a ser mejor seres humanos. Debemos apreciar las homilías porque fortalecen nuestra fe y nos ayudan acercarnos más a Dios y a nuestra familia de fe. Veamos las homilías como regalos especiales que nos ayudan para que nuestra jornada de fe sea mejor y para acercarnos más a Dios.

Antes de concluir, les invito a reflexionar sobre estas preguntas:

- ¿Qué recuerda de la homilía del domingo pasado?
- ¿Escuchó lo que Jesús le estaba diciendo a usted a través de ella?
- ¿Pensó cómo podría desafiarlo o inspirarlo?
- ¿Ha tomado alguna decisión basada en lo que escuchó en la homilía o en las lecturas?
- ¿Qué decisión tomará después de leer y reflexionar sobre este mensaje?

Que la gracia de Dios nos guíe mientras continuamos nuestra jornada de fe.

Su Amigo y Pastor,
P. Linh Nguyen

Our conference is in need of basic protein options for the average 150+ families we serve in our community every weekend at the food pantry.

We are praying and asking you, our fellow parishioners, to help us by participating in PEANUT BUTTER SUNDAY by bringing a jar of peanut butter to whatever mass you attend the weekend of October 15 and leave them in the food donation baskets located inside the church. If we work together, we can all be Jesus's love and compassion to and make a difference in the lives of all of our friends in need in the community that we serve every weekend.

Thank you!

Priesthood Sunday Recap

Thank you to all of the volunteers who made the Priesthood Sunday celebration go smoothly! And many thanks to all who joined us to honor our priests, Fr. Linh and Fr. John!

CCE CORNER: TEN GOOD REASONS TO GO TO MASS PART 2:

God certainly asks us to make one day holy. And He does that for our good and for the good of all who cross our paths. Reason #2 In the Mass, Jesus gives us the gift of Himself. Each and every time we attend Mass we are not only celebrating and receiving the Eucharist which is the Source and Summit of our Catholic faith, but we are responding to Jesus' very clear command to "do this in memory of me." When we attend Mass, we are not memorializing the Last Supper. We are participating in the one event where Jesus gave His Body and Blood that we might have the hope of eternal life. The Mass is the re-presentation (not representation) of all that Jesus accomplished on our behalf through His passion, death, resurrection and ascension into heaven. It is the assurance of the new and everlasting covenant Jesus established with all of us at the Last Supper. The next time you attend Mass, take some time to really reflect on what it is you are about to participate in. Take the time to share with your children these "Ten Good Reasons for Going to Mass."
